

EXPERIENCED ORGANISER POSITION - SA

The Australian Services Union (ASU) represents workers in local government, community services, energy, finance, call centres, airlines and the legal industry and private sector administrative workers.

An Organiser position is available with the SA and NT Branch of the ASU. The position will be based in Adelaide. The successful applicant will be responsible for organising workers in a single industry (Local Government in the first instance). Applicants will need to demonstrate experience with organising and campaigning theory and techniques, and an ability to cover all aspects of the Organising role.

Some regional and interstate travel required.

A position description is available from Pauline Sewell on 08 8363 1322 or at union@asu-sant.asn.au

Applications including contact details of three referees should be addressed to:
Abbie Spencer, Secretary
Australian Services Union –SA + NT Branch
PO Box 2217
Kent Town SA 5071

psewell@asu-sant.asn.au

Applications close: 5.00pm, Wednesday 16 January 2019